CONGRESS.

The House Talks of Asking the President to Explain Certain Actions.

The Senate Transacts Important Business but Discusses a Number of Small Matters.

The Springer Investigating Committee Giving Marshal Wright a Severe Tussle.

Congressional News.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—The chair laid before the senate credentials of Hon. Justin S. Morrell, re-elected senator from West Virginia, also the reports of the secretary of war, relating to Porto Rico and Lake Superior ship canal, showing the interest of the state of Michigan therein. Among the petitions presented was one by Sherman, from the Society of Friends, praying provision be made impending Spanish treaty for settlement by arbitration any difference that may arise between Spain and the United States. Referred. Bills were introduced and referred by Clerk to create a revenue commission. It provides for the formation of the commission to be composed of secretary, treasurer, ex-officers, five members of the house of representatives and three senators to examine and report to congress on or before the second Monday of Dec. 1885, what changes or modifications ought to be made in the existing tariff and internal revenue. By Voorhees to repeal statute of limitations on allowance of pension arrears and to regulate the proof in pension cases. Voorhees, also, introduced a concurrent resolution extending thanks of congress to Commodore Behley, Lieutenant Emory and all officers of the ships Alert, Bear, Thetis and Loeh Gary for daring and skill displayed by them in rescue of the survivors of the Greely Arctic expedition, referred, and Miller, California, offered a resolution which agreed to calling on the secretary of state for copies of all treaties, except postal treaties, entered into by the United States, where the ratification thereof has been exchanged with such notes as in his possession indicating such treaties or parts of treaties as have been changed or abrogated. The senate then proceeded to the consideration of bills upon the calendar.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 6.—Smith, of Pennsylvania, presented a certificate of election of John A. Swope, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of W. A. Duncan, of the Nineteenth district of Pennsylvania, and Swope took the oath of office.

Herbert introduced the following preamble and resolution:

WHEREAS, It appears that the president of the United States has empowered Hon. John A. Kasson, and General W. S. Sanford to represent this government at what is styled the international African conference at Berlin to consider the question of erection and maintain a state in the basin of Niger Congo, and

WHEREAS, Such as this conference seems to impart is a departure from the traditional policy of the government of the United States, and the house of representatives is without official information or reasons which may have induced the president to accredit representatives to take part in such conference; therefore, be it resolved by the house of representatives that the president be requested to inform this body, if not incompatible with the public interests, whether he has so accredited Hon. John A. Kasson and Gen. W. S. Sanford as delegates to represent the United States in said conference, and if so, he is respectfully requested to state the reasons which impelled him to take such a step if he has so accredited said Kasson and Sanford. He is further requested to inform the house whether in letter authority to them or otherwise there were any conditions offered to or limitations placed upon the exercise of their authority as such delegates, and if limitations and conditions were prescribed which of such delegates made known to the conference the limitation and their authority, or whether they appeared unconditionally and apparently with full power to act as delegates representing the United States in the conference assembled to discuss the question of erecting and maintaining a new state on the Congo, continent of Africa. The president is further requested to impart to the house such information as he may be in possession of intended to show whether the new state to be erected and maintained by powers taking part in the conference is to be republican or non-republican in form. The president is also respectfully requested to give his opinion as to whether the appearance of delegates from the United States in such international conference would not stop this government to deny any future alliance to an European sovereign to sit upon American continent government, in such form as to them might seem best whenever the occasion for such interference might arise. Referred.

It Looks Bad for Wright.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 5.—The congressional committee to investigate the appointment of United States deputy marshals in this city, at the last October election, have arrived, and Springer, chairman, began work after 11 o'clock this morning. United States Marshal Lot Wright was the first witness called. It was agreed by the chairman that he should be represented by Hon. J. B. Forsaker as counsel, and that Colonel Marcy should act as counsel for the committee. Hon. John Follett, democratic candidate for congress, of the First Ohio district, was permitted to examine Wright. The witness in obedience to summons had brought with him books and papers pertaining to the appointment of deputy marshals. He explained that he appointed special and general deputy marshals. The specials were for duty at the polls and were residents of the city, so far as he knew. He called attention to three who were not residents and said they were not paid. Another class of deputies watched the Cincinnati end of the Covington bridge for repeaters and still another, composed of residents of Covington, were distributed among the voting places for the purpose of identifying Covington repeaters, if they presented themselves to vote. These were not paid by the government, but by a private fund put in his hands by an unknown person. Ten dollars of it came from Sherford, the republican candidate for Sheriff. He had only a few written recommendations of appointees and had destroyed them, it was probable that all were republicans. One democrat applied but the man who came with him refused to endorse him and he got no other witness. It was generally expected that the appointees should be republicans. He made no agreement to appoint democrats upon condition that they would work for the election of at least one democrat. Mr. Follett asked, "Do you mean to say that you appointed a large number of men whose character and qualification you did not know to preserve the purity of the ballot box?" Witness replied: "It would be hard to know the character of 300 men in so short a time, but when men were recommended by good men I did not hesitate to appoint him. In case a non-resident was appointed special deputy, as was the case in some instances, they were not paid by the government." He said he appointed these deputies at nobody's instance except his own. His observation and information satisfied him of the necessity for their appointment. This was aided by the statement of Follett made to him a few days before the election that there were many strangers in the city. He did at one time determine to appoint one democrat for each voting place, but subsequently changed his mind, as he wanted men all of his own selection. The deputy marshals were furnished by him with 44-caliber bull dog revolvers, 800 of which came to him by express from New York. He had no information that would fully justify him in saying they were furnished by the republican national committee, but supposed they were so furnished. The cartridges came with them. He regarded it as essential that men who were to preserve the peace at the polls should be armed, and said so to Powell Clayton, of Arkansas, and to Clarkson, of Arkansas, to the republican national committee, to Mr. Kerns, of St. Louis, and to many republicans of Cincinnati. About half of the revolvers were returned. Could not tell what became of the others. Could not remember the name of the house in Maiden Lane, New York, to which the pistols were returned. His examination is still in progress.

The Oklahoma Invaders.

CALDWELL, Kan., January 4.—Gen. Hatch expects to move on Oklahoma early this week. Seven troops of the 9th cavalry and one troop of the 24th infantry, with forage stores for a fifty days' campaign, are being concentrated here and sent to the front. There is no particular excitement here over the matter, as the local boomers have abandoned all idea of an invasion. They await congressional action. No couriers have arrived from the seat of war in the past few days. The latest report is that Lieut. Day is close to Crouch's colony on the Cimarron. Neither party is strong enough to capture the other. This child's play will cease when Gen. Hatch strikes the colony, if they do not move peaceably.

A PUGILISTIC MUSS.

The Kintery of the Bill Posting Companies.

Clues in a Flat-iron Encounter.

Since the recent organization of the Fort Wayne Bill Posting company a spirited rivalry has existed between the organizations, one headed by C. B. Woodworth and the other by John A. Scott. Mr. Woodworth's company, it is stated, leased a number of bill boards heretofore held by Mr. Scott, among them being one at the corner of Barr and Berry streets. Woodworth's men were hanging paper on the wall to day when Scott hindered the work. He was not promptly obeyed, and a personal encounter ensued between Mr. Scott and Frank King, a young man employed by Mr. Woodworth. King was bruised and cut in a few places before friends separated the men. Mr. Scott was arrested on a charge of assault and battery and now a legal contest will be made for possession of the bill board.

In the criminal court this afternoon Charles Miller, who stole tools from the Pranger brothers, pleaded guilty and was given a year in the prison north.

John Welch, who stole two bolts of cloth from N. B. Young & Co., also acknowledged his guilt and will go prison for a year.

THE ORANGEMEN

Make Trouble in Newfoundland and Jeopardize the Safety of United States Citizens.

The German Expedition to Congo Abandoned—An Election War in Virginia.

Dr. Maxwell, the Murderer of His Children at Springfield, Ohio, Hangs Himself.

The American Consul Takes a Hand.

ST. JOHN'S, Newfoundland, Jan. 5.—Yesterday at Bay Roberts occurred another serious Orange outbreak. The New York redemptionists who are holding missions to that place were besieged and imprisoned in their dwellings. The Orangemen made for the Catholic churches and hundreds of armed Orangemen paraded the streets, when intelligence reached St. John's that the United States consul demanded from Governor Glover protection for the lives and liberty of United States citizens. An executive council has been summoned and the British corvette Leusden has been ordered to Bay Roberts and a large body of police under Inspector Carby have been dispatched by special train to the scene of the trouble.

The Expedition Abandoned.

BREMER, Jan. 5.—A correspondent of the Standard says the German expedition to the Congo country under Scholtz, has been obliged to relinquish the undertaking, owing to the severity of the weather and the opposition of German Europeans, who are apprehensive that Germany contemplates making further connections to this territory. The same correspondent says America is making preparations to dispatch war vessels to West Africa to prevent sudden occupation of Congo by Portuguese, should this be attempted.

He Followed his Children.

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, Jan. 5.—Dr. John Maxwell hung himself in the county jail yesterday with a towel and was found dead when his breakfast was taken to him. On Nov. 20, last, Maxwell murdered his three children by poisoning and attempted suicide at that time, but recovered and was lodged in jail. His actions since his arrest have induced the belief that he is insane. Mrs. Maxwell is prostrated by the awful shock.

An Election Fight.

MCKEEVILLE, W. Va., Jan. 5.—The adherents of the rival candidates for the office of county clerk are under arms and the town is in great alarm. James Wilson defeated William Leeb at the October election, and Leeb is claiming the office. The mayor and sheriff have prevented bloodshed, but armed men were still in battle array last evening, with expectations of an outbreak.

Recommendation Before.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—Mayor Grace, in his annual message to the board of aldermen, urged the necessity of holding elections and that the bureau elections be made independent of police departments, so far as is regarded the appointment and election of officers.

Collision of Steamers.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 5.—The steamer Accoonak, of the old Dominion line, collided with the steamer Laroy, of the same line, off Roney Island. The Accoonak sunk but no lives were lost, though a heavy fog prevailed.

His Religion Couldn't Save Him.

HANDSOME, Ind., Jan. 5.—Jacob Michaels, a prominent church member, having been discovered in forging an order by which he got $100, shot himself dead in the presence of the constable sent to arrest him.

Found Dead.

BLOOMINGTON, Me., Jan. 5.—Louis Feidler, night watchman at Ryer's spoke factory, was found dead near his home with his brains blown out. The murderer is not yet known.

Shot by a Negro.

JACKSON, Ohio, Jan. 5.—Robert Maxwell, an express messenger, on the Ohio Southern railroad, was shot last night by William Johnson (colored) with whom he had quarreled.

Another Complication Over the Illinois Senatorship.

SPRINGFIELD, January 4.—The story is repeated here with much particularity, that W. C. Headen, Republican member-elect to the legislature from the Thirty-third district, will be likely, in a certain emergency, to vote for Congressman S. W. Moulton for the United States senate. He is a law debitor to him for aid in his early years, and it now appears that a number of Republicans in Headen's district expect to hand him a petition, signed by Republicans, urging him to vote for Moulton when it shall have been fully demonstrated that neither the regular Democratic nor regular Republican nominee can be elected. A gentleman professing to have it from Headen himself says that the Republican nominee will undoubtedly have Headen's vote as long as there is a reasonable chance of his election, but beyond that point he believes Headen will not feel himself bound, particularly if he has the backing of a respectable Republican constituency in such a course. Who is engineering the petition is not stated, but that it will be engineered to turning the backing in the contemplated emergency is alleged to be unquestionable.

The Old Commander's Physical Wreck.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 4.—A prominent government official says that when in New York a few days ago he learned that five physicians had been called in consultation to examine the state of General Grant's health, and arrived at the conclusion that the general was completely broken down physically, and required absolute rest.

The Georgia Marshalship.

ATLANTA, January 4.—When Gen. Longstreet was removed from the marshalship of Georgia, John E. Bryant was appointed to fill the vacancy. At the time it was charged that Bryant had entered into a bargain to deliver Georgia's delegation to Mr. Arthur. In December the senate confirmed the nomination. Since Governor Cleveland's election half a dozen prominent Georgians have become candidates for the vacancy, which Bryant was supposed to be filling, would expire May 31. A sensation has been created by the discovery that while Bryant was nominated and confirmed to fill Longstreet's vacancy, yet President Arthur has in reality commissioned him for the full term of four years from June 1 next, thus securing him in place until after Governor Cleveland shall have served out his term and retired. The names of Senator Joe Brown and District Attorney Spear are given as those of persons who have read the commission and know its terms to be true.

A Well Known New York Doctor Shoots His Wife in the Head.

NEW YORK, January 4.—The occupants of the Ashton flats, on Lexington avenue, were startled early this morning by two pistol shots. Mrs. Tausky rushed from her room with blood flowing from a wound in her head. "He has shot me and killed himself," the lady cried. Gentlemen entered the apartment and found on the floor in a pool of blood Dr. Rudolph Tausky, a very well known physician of this city. The lady's wound is not dangerous, but she was prostrated by the shock. Dr. Tausky was removed to the Presbyterian hospital. When he returned to consciousness he asked to be taken home. When refused, he jumped out of bed and made a rush for a window. He evinced other signs of insanity. Dr. Tausky is well known as an expert in insanity, and recently read an exhaustive essay on "Lunacy and Its Crimes" before the Medical Legal Society, and when the Jesse Hoyt will case was begun he gave up his large practice to devote his entire attention to it. A few months ago he had a quarrel with Mr. Morris Wetzel, with whom he lived on East Seventeenth street, because Wetzel would not prepare something to eat for him at a late hour at night. He assaulted Mr. Wetzel next day and the affair has preyed upon his mind since. He is independently rich. His friends have considered him to be of unsound mind for some time past.

The Great Actor Narrowly Escapes a Terrible Death.

PHILADELPHIA, January 4.—John McCullough, the actor, narrowly escaped being run over by the cars at the Broad Street station Thursday night. He arrived in this city on Wednesday and dined with Lawrence Barrett at the Continental Hotel. He spent part of the evening in the actors' drawing-room at the Chestnut Street Opera House. He wandered carelessly about the city yesterday, and in the evening went to the Opera House again. Manager Zimmerman greeted him cordially and the actor told him he was going to Chicago. He said he "wanted a week" at the Opera House and insisted upon playing next week. Mr. Zimmerman finally pacified him and persuaded him to go to the Broad Street station in company with Cornelius Bowser, the negro livery man attached to the Opera House, who took charge of his suitcase. Mr. McCullough bought a ticket for Chicago, ascended the stone steps and reached the car-shed just as the train was moving out of the station. He dashed through the open gate, followed by the excited Bowser, who rushed past him, jumped on the train and then attempted to assist the actor to get aboard. As the actor grasped Bowser's hand and attempted to lift himself to the car his foot slipped and he fell from the platform. The conductor exerted all his strength and lifted him on the car just in time to save him from being crushed as the swinging motion of the train brought the cars together. The train by this time was moving so swiftly that Bowser found great difficulty in jumping off.

A Bigamous Preacher.

MURPHYSBORO, ILL., January 4.—The Rev. John Taylor, colored, Free Will Baptist minister, has created quite a sensation in colored church circles. About three years ago he married a Mrs. Maria Wade, of this place, but lately his duties seemed to call him to Du Quoin, Ill. His wife, hearing that all was not as it should be, took it upon herself to visit his field of labor in Du Quoin. She arrived late at night and hunted her loving husband and pastor up. She found that he had just married one of the sisters there, and surprised the newly married couple by calling upon them in their bed-room, and aroused them from their slumbers. The scene is indescribable. The reverend gentleman at first claimed that the woman who had disturbed him was not his wife, but when she produced the marriage certificate and informed him that the pontificality awaited him he declared he had never married the woman in bed with him, whereupon wife number 2, with her friends, set upon him and obliged him to make a hasty retreat. He walked to Pinkneyville and borrowed seventy cents from the cashier of the bank, since which time nothing has been heard of him. There is a state warrant out for him in both Jackson and Perry counties. Any information of his whereabouts will be thankfully received by the sheriff of either county.

"Iron Clad."

CHICAGO, January 3.—A copy of the ironclad contract is published here, which the miners in the employ of the Hooking Valley Company are compelled to sign. The contract runs for a year and binds a miner to abide by such rules and regulations as the company may promulgate and not to be absent without leave. The company agrees to pay fifty cents per ton for coal mined and properly screened. The miner stipulates that he will not join any strike or join any combination to secure an advance in wages, and if he violates any of the provisions of the contract he forfeits all claim for coal mined and not paid for.

Arthur's Organ Comes Out for Dewey.

ALBANY, January 4.—The Express to-morrow will say its choice was Arthur, but as he has notified his friends that he is not a candidate, that ends the business. It then says: "William M. Evans can make a speech as long as a decalogue, but we want something more than this. Evans lacks the requirements of politics. The Express can discover no man who is so well adapted to the position as Hon. Chauncey M. Dewey, always Republican with voice, and with heart and with tongue, which gave no uncertain sound. Dewey would be our very strongest candidate."

Strikers Deviltry.

COLUMBUS, O., January 4.—The striking miners had control of a wire in the Hooking valley last night and issued false orders for the running of a special train from Buchtel to Strutsville, which, if it had not been discovered, might have resulted in great damage and possible loss of life as a collision would have occurred with other trains if it had run as ordered. The reports are to-night that the wire is being tampered with again.

The Bristol Tunnel is still on fire and it is thought the destruction will be complete and several months will be required before the transportation can be reopened.

Tackled the Wrong Man.

WHEELING, January 4.—This morning at 2 o'clock Ballhazer Kaus, a German barber, at Bellaire, when going home was attacked on the street by three masked robbers. One of them choked him while the others went through his pockets. He drew a self-cocking revolver from his overcoat pocket and fired. One of the robbers fell and the others fled. The wounded man proved to be Chas. Bradford, long believed to be a thief, and who has several times been arrested, but never convicted. He will die.

Fires.

ST. LOUIS, January 4.—A fire at Poplar Bluff, Mo., at an early hour this morning, destroyed three general stores, one drug store and one vacant building, entailing a loss of about $25,000, which is partly covered by insurance.

MONDAY, JAN. 5, 1885.

THE CITY.

The public schools opened again today.

There was a large attendance at all the churches yesterday.

The Wabash general officers are en route here on a tour of inspection.

The Wabash road sells round trip tickets to New Orleans, good for forty days, for $21.95.

Rev. M. E. Cooper is conducting a successful revival meeting at the Simpson M. E. church.

G. A. Townsend, "Gath," the world-renowned newspaper correspondent, lectures at Wabash to-morrow evening.

Epiphany services will be held at Trinity church, on the festival of the Epiphany to-morrow morning at 10:30.

At the Cathedral yesterday Rev. Father Lang finished reading the letter of the Baltimore council to the Catholics of the United States.

Jacob Myers was mulcted to the amount of $15 in Squire Ryan's court for provoking John Nester to commit a breach of the peace.

The base ball park is covered with ice and yesterday a thousand skaters were whirling about the enclosure where the sphere was formerly twirled.

Nicholas Laykoff, the Broadway baker, lost a pocket-book, Saturday evening, containing $40, which was shortly after found by Christopher Ryan and returned to the owner.

The Bector's Aid society of Trinity church meets to-morrow, Tuesday, afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Ladies' Association and Woman's Auxiliary society meet Wednesday afternoon.

A woman with weak nerves was frightened into hysterics Saturday night at the performance of a fakir at the Calhoun street museum, who pretended to cut a man into mince meat.

There was a large congregation present at the Universalist services at the Masonic Temple yesterday. Dr. Cone's evening address was particularly applicable to the New Year, and is spoken of very highly.

Mugg's Landing showed to a small audience Saturday evening. There was scarcely the merit in the second performance that there was in the first. Empty seats have a discouraging effect upon actors.

For some weeks past the Wabash have been running their through freight trains from Peoria to Detroit by way of the El river division. Now the trains run via Fort Wayne and as a consequence traffic is much livelier on that division than heretofore.

There was a large audience present last evening at Trinity church at the Christmas entertainment. The singing by the choir, the songs by the children, and remarks by the rector, all contributed to make the occasion one of great enjoyment.

Louis Rastetter has now orders on his books for $2,000 sets of buggy top bows. Last year at this time he had but 5,000 on his books, and he naturally feels clever at the boom in his trade. It is not long since Mr. Rastetter opened his new factory on Broadway.

The through shipments of flour, grain and provisions from Chicago to the east by the pool lines, during the week ending Saturday, January 3, amounted to 39,405 tons, against 34,084 during the preceding week, an increase of 4,020. The Pittsburg road carried 5,891 tons and the Nickel Plate 4,508.

Victoria Gale, a colored damsel, reflected severely on the chastity of Gertrude Jones, another dusky female. Miss Gale was fined $15 for the offense and now the war begins, as the woman had a hair pulling over the matter. Justice Ryan heard the case and the court room was packed with chivalrous colored youths.

Christian Kram, an inmate of the Whitley county poor house, took a stroll into Columbia City Saturday afternoon, and while walking on the Pittsburg track, stepped off on a sidetrack, to avoid a coming train, and was struck by a locomotive coming from the other direction, receiving injuries which yesterday resulted in death.

Charles Becht, representing the house of Theo. Pfafflin & Co., Indianapolis, will assist Prof. John Mohr in arranging a program for the charity entertainment to be given at Library hall soon. Mr. Becht sold the handsome piano to Father Brammer for $1,300 and is anxious to have his instrument show its merits on the occasion named.

D. S. Williams, of Mattoon, to-day opened his bucket shop in Fred Michael's building, on Main street. Mr. Williams will make his deals through a Chicago house, and the market reports and privilege of a special wire from the Western Union company cost him $50 a week. John Currier has been assigned to the service of Mr. Williams and takes the market reports from the wire in Manager Perry's private apartments in the Aufrecht block.

Ben F. Dawson is now landlord of the Morse house at Angola.

Thomas McMahon, a pauper, was shipped to Warsaw to-day by Trustee Gaffney.

The Australian show wagon was pulled to town this morning by two frightful looking crows.

Councilman Herman Michael is organizing an excursion party to go to New Orleans in a special palace car.

Dr. Pierre Galus delivered a discourse at the M. E. church in New Haven yesterday, the Rev. C. C. Albertson acting as interpreter.

Billy Boyle, sent to the prison north for life, is at work in the finishing room of the chair department under the supervision of Luke M. Fleming.

A skating carnival occurs this evening on the ice near Spy Run avenue. John A. Maier will do fancy skating and smash glass balls with a rifle while he glides over the congealed.

The indications for the lower lake region as reported by the weather bureau at Washington to THE SENTINEL are as follows: Warmer weather, increasing cloudiness and local rains, southerly winds shifting easterly.

The City Roller Skating rink is temporarily closed and it is said that it will reopen under the management of Mr. Shuman, the second hand man. Davis Brothers, the former managers, have left for other fields, where they will carry on a similar enterprise.

In a column of New Year's gossip about the officials of the Northern Indiana prison, the Michigan City Dispatch says Luke Fleming has sworn off flirting with pretty girls. Luke has grown quite portly, and may some day be warden of the prison.

W. E. McDermott, the stenographer, has located in the law offices of Brackenridge & Cary and Chapin & O'Rourke. Mr. McDermott is one of the best short hand reporters in the state. He was formerly foreman in THE SENTINEL news room, and for a time was city editor of this paper.

Saturday a Wabash freight train came near killing a man at West Point. He was carrying the switch light to the station master at that place and walked leisurely along the track, unconscious of the approach of the train. The locomotive struck the lantern, breaking it to pieces, but the man escaped without a scratch.

Ernest Lambert, the clever stenographer, and Miss Mina Honeck were married some time ago at Hillsdale, Mich. The young people intended to keep the pleasant little affair quiet for some time, but the secret leaked out to-day and Mr. and Mrs. Lambert will be blessed and congratulated. Mrs. Lambert, who is at Decatur, will come home this evening and after to-morrow will be at home to friends at 114 East Berry street.

Mannix for the position of door keeper and assistant door keeper of the state senate.

The Mayor's Court.

Tom Cusick, the Indian musician and recently leader of Lighthouse band, while drunk attempted to get into a house on Lewis street late Saturday night and the proprietor made a futile effort to perform him with a pistol ball. Officer Grisham arrested him and yesterday he put up $15 bail and was released. He failed to appear before his honor this morning and forfeited that amount.

John Wheeler is a vagrant who prefers the jail to freedom. He was discharged from jail for the third time Saturday morning and Sunday he feigned drunk and was re-arrested. The mayor satisfied him by giving him thirty-nine days. He will be out in time to celebrate Washington's birthday, when he will probably manage to get sent up until warm weather.

John Frank pleaded guilty to a plain, ordinary, every day drunk and will crack stones to the extent of $12.75.

Zenas Herring and John Tracy were charged with assault and battery. As Tracy claimed to be too ill to appear, the case was continued until to-morrow and Herring was sent back to the bastille. Their case is mentioned in another column.

Turned Beer into Blood.

Miss Frank lives in a palatial residence in an alley-way south of Columbia street and near Clinton. There on Saturday night she was to wed Mr. Pulver, an accomplished youth of our city. Squire Ryan at the appointed time performed the ceremony in his usual felicitous and ostentatious manner. After the ceremony John Tracy, a bad character, invited himself to the concluding festivities. He is a brother-in-law to Zenas Herring, at whose house the wedding took place. The latter invited Tracy to leave, Tracy objected to the invitation by trying to kiss Herring with a beer bottle. Herring then crossed Tracy with a stick of stove wood over the head. The latter was taken to the hospital and the former to the police station. Tracy will recover.

SCOTT SQUEALS.

George Scott Implicates Himself in the Attempt to Wreck the Wabash Express.

And Names the Logansport Counterfeiters who were With Him in the Business.

Sheriff Nelson's Capture Exposes a Most Desperate Gang of Crooks and Criminals.

The dastardly attempt to wreck the Wabash passenger train at Prairie Switch last Wednesday night assumes a serious phase. George Scott, the fellow now in jail for stealing his father-in-law's wheat and riding off Ed Lee's horse, yesterday confessed to Sheriff Nelson that he was one of the four men who did the terrible work and also acknowledges partnership in the crooked business of counterfeiting money.

Some time ago Scott made the acquaintance of a young man who used to "run" on the Wabash road and now varies his residence between Fort Wayne, Huntington, La Gro and Logansport. This fellow, nameless because not yet arrested, was the leader of a slick party of counterfeiters who worked base metal into coin at Logansport. For $50 in gold Scott purchased $500 worth of the spurious coin and holds a receipt for the money. With this bag of silver Scott had a great time and worked into the graces of the counterfeiters. The train wrecking scheme was planned in his presence and he stood by when his three companions displaced the rails. The object of the wreck was to send the train into the ditch and then rob the dead and dying passengers. The men concealed themselves in the wood land near by, when they heard the express train approaching with lightning speed, and seeing their scheme fail fled for their lives. Scott went to East Toledo, where he has a brother, and later proceeded to the house of another brother at Whitehouse, a place seven miles from East Toledo. Here Sheriff Nelson and Deputy Clausmeyer found him. Our officers were followed by two Wabash detectives, who hoped to cheat the sheriff and his clever deputy out of the catch. Sheriff Nelson went into the house and Scott jumped almost naked out of bed. He leaped through a window into the arms of Deputy Sheriff Clausmeyer. The detectives strove to induce Scott not to stir without a requisition, but he did not heed them and is now here to pay the penalty of his awful offense.

Scott was asked what he did with his counterfeit money and promptly replied he dumped it along the Wabash track en route to Toledo. Sheriff Nelson sent a man out and a hundred or so of the bad silver pieces were picked up. This fact establishes the man's story and the officers are now after his three accomplices in the crime. The crooks live at Huntington, Lagro and Logansport, and the leader of the gang has a sister residing here. These are the two fellows who come here some weeks ago and worked off their bad coin on Broadway merchants. Their flight from the officers and the seizure of a bucket of bad money in a Harrison street boarding house are familiar to THE SENTINEL readers.

On investigation by Wabash railroad officials it is established that the wreck of the fast train east at Prairie switch, was caused for malicious purposes. The pin was taken out of the bottom of the switch-stand and the strap removed, throwing the switch without removing the safety light, and it was impossible for the engineer to discover the position of the switch until he was passing over it. This fact being ascertained conviction of the quartet will be easy as Scott has turned state's evidence. All of the fifty passengers on the wrecked train, will testify against the scoundrels and they can count on going up for life. The fifty human beings that so narrowly escaped death can congratulate themselves that they will live to see their would-be murderers get a severe sample of Allen county justice. No such exploit as the one now noted is recorded in the criminal annals of Indiana, and the devilry planned at Prairie Switch compares with anything the James brothers ever conceived in their most desperate career.

Seriously Injured.

John Leibkin, a well-known farmer of Adams township, attempted to crawl under the cars of a standing freight train, on the Wabash track, at New Haven, on Saturday evening, just as the locomotive started to move. The wheels almost completely severed one leg, and other serious injuries were inflicted which, as the victim is nearly sixty years of age, may prove fatal. To-day he is reported as resting easier. Mr. Leibkin is one of the prosperous farmers of Adams township. No blame can be attached to the Wabash company. Mr. Leibkin has a large family.

publicity. The receivers wanted to buy 300 cars of Post, Martin & Co., on monthly payments, but Judge Treat, who has undoubtedly read our article on car trusts, just shut down on the scheme and told the receivers if they had not the money to buy rolling stock with when needed, they might go without it. The courts in those days are giving unmistakable signs of being deficient in the enterprise and energy that characterized the management of railroads by courts in former days. But then it must be considered that courts are not so fresh now as they were then.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

THE BEST TONIC.

This medicine, combining Iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Loss of Sleep, Headache, Nervousness, and Neuritis.

It is an infallible remedy for Diseases of the Blood and Liver.

It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives. It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—other iron medicines do. It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves flatulence and belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.

For Intermitting Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, etc., it has no equal.

The genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferers at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Look for it.

DYSPEPSIA

Causes its victims to be miserable, hopeless, confused, and depressed in mind, very irritable, languid, and drowsy. It is a disease which does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy to throw off the causes and tone up the digestive organs till they perform their duties willingly. Hood's Sarsaparilla has proven just the required remedy in hundreds of cases.

Cure of Asthma and Spinal Weakness.

239 West 23 Street, New York, May 17, '83.

Though it may be irregular for a physician to give a certificate in favor of a proprietary medicine, in the case of humanity, I venture to say a word in favor of Allcock's Porous Plasters, which I esteem the most remarkable external remedy of this century.

I have known these plasters to cure spinal weakness where the patient had been confined for months to his bed. A blacksmith of my acquaintance was severely injured in the back by the kick of a horse; four Allcock's Porous Plasters quickly relieved him of excruciating agony and cured him in a week. Another patient, suffering from neuralgia of the heart, was completely cured in four hours.

In Asthma, I know of a case where they were worn for three months and fully restored the health. In another case where a patient had sporadic cholera, nothing relieved him until he put on three of Allcock's Porous Plasters; in twelve hours all pains in his chest and stomach had disappeared. I know that these plasters applied on the pit of the stomach, are a sovereign remedy for dyspepsia and constipation.

Finally, if persons once use Allcock's Porous Plasters they will never use any other; they are so pleasant, quick and painless—nature's balmic assistant.

9 EAST MAIN STREET.

Oh! H. W. Thirsty I Am!

Said continually the old lady in the car. A passenger brought her a glass of water, which having drained, she broke into repeating

Oh! How Thirsty I Was!

Too many business men are like the old lady—disposed to cling to their discomforts. In 1884 in has been, "How dull it is." If 1885 brings returning prosperity, their cry will be "How dull it was."

"Better let the dead past bury its dead." We look to the future. We propose to sell more goods and make more money this year than ever before. There never was a better opportunity. Money and goods are both cheap. Industry has been weeded out. With 1885 we start upon ten years of great prosperity as the country has ever seen. You will find us at the old stand selling
